Ghada Shbeir

Specialist and professional performer of traditional Middle Eastern folks and Arabo Andalusian songs, Syriac, Byzantine Ecclesiastical and Ancient Maronite chants, Ghada Shbeir has an exquisite talent and the ability to move easily and with professionalism from traditional folk songs to religious chants.

Due to her unique style in performing, she became a professor of traditional Arabic singing techniques at the USEK, AlMuwashshah singing techniques at the Lebanese University and sacred Syriac chants at the National Conservatory of Lebanon.

She has given numerous musical performances attended mostly by world religious, musical and political leaders in such countries as: Belgium, Canada, Cyprus, England, Greece, Italy, Jordan, Lebanon and France.
